St John's ECD and Preparatory School

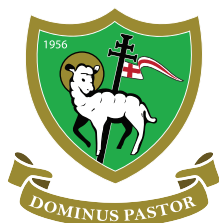

I enter my son's name for St John's ECD Centre or Preparatory School on the understanding that:

1. St John's ECD Centre and Preparatory School is an independent trust school founded on Christian principles, and functions according to Christian values.
2. Our school reserves the right to accept any pupil at the school's' discretion and in accordance with St John's Educational Trust Policies and Guidelines.
3. The submission of this form does not place your son on a waiting list or any other priority list.
4. Special consideration is given to siblings of current and sons of past pupils of St John's. However, this does not guarantee placement.
5. The pupil may be required to sit an entrance examination or assessment, the results of which will remain confidential.
6. Part of the admissions process may include an interview with a senior member of staff.
7. If accepted, parents and/or guardians will sign a Parent Contract which will manage the contractual relationship with St John's ECD or Preparatory School. The family and pupil will be expected to familiarise themselves with, and be bound by the schools' relevant policies and guidelines.
8. A non-refundable administration fee will be raised per application. Payment of this fee does not guarantee that an offer of a place will be made.
9. Acceptance into St John's ECD Centre does not guarantee placement into grade 1 or any other grade at St John's Preparatory school. Likewise, acceptance into St John's Preparatory School does not guarantee placement into St John's College.
10. A copy of the pupil's birth certificate is required with this application form.
11. The school's decision regarding acceptance of this application is final, and no further correspondence will be entered into.
