ADVERTISING:

New advertising for specific events to be approved by the Headmaster. Board approval is needed for new general campus advertising.

FUNDRAISING:

Must be OPTIONAL and for the benefit of all and not just a specific activity or sport, i.e. a particular sport cannot request that the entire school support its fund raising requests.

TOURS:

1. Funds to be raised by parents for the tours, including staff costs (excluding personal spending).
2. Selection to be on the basis of merit, not affordability. Where affordability is an issue it is expected the committee concerned should handle this aspect sensitively.
3. Must adhere to the general requirements pertaining to tour preparation as outlined in the Staff Handbook.

NB* The day to day running and management of various sports codes and clubs and the facilities thereof is the responsibility of the respective Directors of Sports and Culture and ultimately the Headmaster.

GOODWILL * These guidelines are intended to ensure maximum transparency and to ensure best practice. There are potential pitfalls, but every effort must be made to avoid these
